are the thomas references in the gospel of john the thomas compositions and the early thomas traditions in northwestern and southern india purely legendary as biblical scholars have assumed or do they preserve unexamined historical traditions intermittently as the thomas christians in india have believed didymus judas thomas is one of the most misunderstood characters from the beginning of the new testament history and interpretation in this study thomaskutty addresses the following questions whether thomas was merely a doubting thomas or a genuine thomas can we understand thomas comprehensively by bringing the new testament apocrypha and historical traditions together how was thomas connected to eastern christianity and how does the thomas literature support not support this connectivity can we understand the thomas traditions related to judea syria and india with the help of canonical extra canonical and traditio historical documents thomaskutty investigates the development of the thomas literature right from the beginning examining and questioning the approaches and methodologies that have been employed in interpreting these documents and analyzes the thomas literature closely in order to understand the character his mission involvements and the possible implications this may have for understanding early christianity in the east in this study arguments are put forward for the thesis that biblical exegesis of the old testament prophetic literature is not a simple matter of interpreting texts but is also a process in which logical models or possible worlds are constructed to accommodate the validity of particular interpretations the lack of a model theoretical orientation to old testament methodological approaches has led to a situation in which the criticism of particular theories rarely addresses the real points of disagreement between scholars one theory is simply set against another even though the theories would be more effectively evaluated by discussing the validity and relevance of the different models in which they are framed there are various plausible and relevant models available for the interpretation of old testament texts in order to compare these different models a metalogical system charles sanders peirce s semiotics has been used throughout this study many important methodological issues are discussed in this study a
